

Name:
Enrolment No:

UNIVERSITY OF PETROLEUM AND ENERGY STUDIES
End Semester Examination, December 2018

Course: Planning Theory-I Programme: B. Plan Time: 03 hrs. Instructions:	Semester: III Course Code: BPLC 201 Max. Marks: 100
---	--

SECTION A

Attempt All Questions Each Carry Equal Marks.

S. No.	Question	Marks	CO
Q 1.	What is PLANNING in terms of city development?	4
Q2.	What was the crisis of world war? How cities recovered?	4
Q3.	Define planning perspectives? How planning theories are being used?	4
Q4.	What is PUBLIC INTEREST ? Explain its forms.	4
Q5.	What is sustainability? Explain sustainable development.	4

SECTION B

Attempt All Questions Each Carry Equal Marks

Q6.	What is the significance of planning theory? Define in detail using multiple examples.	10
Q7.	Explain in detail historical background and significance of Public Participation . Elaborate examples in detail from INDIA too.	10
Q8.	Write down - Basic principles of Democracy and Public Participation .	10
Q9.	When and how sustainability evolved as an essential part of development in 20 th century.	10
	OR
	What are the methods of Public Participation in Planning? What are its forms?

SECTION-C

Attempt All Questions Each Carry Equal Marks

Q10.	Define 7 procedural theories of planning that remains the principal theories of planning.	20
Q11.	Define Sherry Arnstein-Ladder of Public Participation .	20
	OR

	Describe steps used in rational decision making model used in planning cities
--	---	--	--